

Beautiful Norway

South-West Coast

A dairy farm is looking for a motivated trainee. 6 months training starting April 1st, 2019

The farm is situated in a small community on the south-west coast of Norway, approximately 3 hours south of Bergen. It is in the midst of beautiful scenery with surrounding mountains and fjords, famous for its Viking heritage. The dairy farm has 28 milking cows and 26 young cows, and they usually keep a few lambs/sheep over the summer months.

The farm produces grass winter food and has a total of 132 acres grass area and 162 acres grazing area

Number of workers on the farm: 1-2
Single host (male), no children

Dairy – practical and theoretical training includes:

- Herd health management
- Feeding and ration balancing
- Milking
- Pasture management
- Reproductive procedures

Crop farming – practical and theoretical training includes:

- Operating major machinery
- Harvesting of crops
- Seed, fertilizer and crop protection
- Weeding and weed identification
- Repair and maintenance of machinery

Requirements:

- Some previous experience and/or knowledge of dairy farming and cows, is desirable
- The trainee should be an agricultural student currently enrolled in a university

Explore the area:

Visithaugesund.no