

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

One of the best garden centers in Ohio invites you to test your skills in retail and customer service.

We are seeking applicants interested in interning in a large garden center in Columbus, Ohio.

Required qualifications:

- Education in horticulture or closely related sciences
- Experience with ornamental plants: annuals and perennials including trees and shrubs
- Very good English language skills
- Professional demeanor
- Excellent ethics and morals
- Willingness to work in an international team

This garden center is located only a few miles away from The Ohio Program office. Your typical responsibilities would include: plant care, customer service and sales.

This is an excellent opportunity to polish your English skills, meet many people and enjoy living very close to the largest university in the USA – The Ohio State University.

Good housing is provided on site, the internships is well paid. Be ready for the busy spring season with long hours.
